ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Brad Ehrlichman
Associate

Brad Ehrlichman is an associate in Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors' New York office.

Mr. Ehrlichman has focused his practice on complex commercial matters, and has experience in international arbitration, contract disputes, mass torts and securities litigation.

Mr. Ehrlichman received his Juris Doctor degree in 2010 from Columbia Law School, where he was also a James Kent Scholar. He received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Foreign Languages from Boston University in 2004.

While in law school, Mr. Ehrlichman completed an internship with Judge Robert A. Katzmann and then-Judge Sonia Sotomayor on the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. After graduating, he clerked for the Honorable Norma Shapiro, Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

He wrote an article in 2011 titled "In This Corner: An Analysis of Federal Boxing Legislation," published in the Columbia Journal of Law & the Arts.

Prior to joining Brewer, Mr. Ehrlichman practiced in Washington, D.C. as an associate with Williams & Connolly and in New York as an associate with Quinn, Emanuel, Urquhart & Sullivan.
