

B R E W E R

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Gavin Hamilton
Manager, Public Affairs

Gavin Hamilton is a Manager of Public Affairs in the New York office of Brewer, Attorneys and Counselors.

Mr. Hamilton develops and executes strategies in public relations and crisis management advancing the interests of the firm and its clients. These include Fortune 500 companies, entrepreneurs, and leading organizations in hospitality and finance.

Mr. Hamilton's work with the firm extends to projects involving the Brewer Storefront, the legal public service affiliate of the firm, and the Brewer Foundation.

Prior to joining the firm in the spring of 2017, Mr. Hamilton worked in the media industry, serving as a producer, editor and reporter for top networks, including Fox News Channel, Bloomberg, CBS, and the Tribune Media group. He contributed to reporting on major breaking news stories involving issues of law, business, politics, and public policy. He has experience working with chief executive officers, investors, elected officials, and political pundits across the globe. Notably, he worked extensively with Bloomberg on its BProud campaign celebrating LGBTQ awareness month and its "Progress on Poverty" initiative, led by Michael Bloomberg and Bill Gates.

Mr. Hamilton holds a bachelor's degree in Geography and Communications from Southern Illinois University.

Education

B.A. in Geography and Communications, Southern Illinois University, 2005

Contact

gph@brewerattorneys.com
212.224.8813