

B R E W E R

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Jason C. McKenney
Associate

Jason C. McKenney is an associate in the Dallas office of Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors.

Before joining the firm, Mr. McKenney worked as a senior litigation associate at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, LLP.

Mr. McKenney earned his Juris Doctor degree summa cum laude in 2009 from the University of Houston Law Center, where he was elected Notes & Comments Editor for the Houston Law Review and to the Order of the Coif.

While in law school, he also served as a judicial intern to the Honorable Jennifer Walker Elrod of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Prior to law school, Mr. McKenney received his B.A. in History with honors from Wesleyan University in 2004.

Mr. McKenney's experience includes:

- Counsel for Allergan in federal multidistrict litigation involving antitrust claims alleging various types of unlawful conduct intended to delay market entry of generic versions of the blockbuster prescription drug, Restasis®.
- Counsel for the National Rifle Association in connection with civil litigation.
- Counsel for Sanofi Aventis in obtaining complete victory in False Claims Act and antitrust litigations involving the blockbuster prescription drug, Lovenox®, and alleging that client defrauded the United States Patent & Trademark Office into issuing an otherwise invalid patent.
- Counsel for global manufacturing company in antitrust, false advertising, and patent infringement litigations involving allegations of improper standard setting conduct and so-called "patent hold-up."
- Counsel for large agricultural company in federal multidistrict and state court litigation involving antitrust, extortion, fraud, and conspiracy claims related to the development of a first-of-its-kind animal welfare standard.
- Counsel for family-controlled media company and its board of directors in connection with corporate takeover litigation and allegations of breach of fiduciary duty.
- Counsel for one of the largest U.S. apparel and home furnishings retailers in federal securities investigation and related shareholder derivative and securities fraud class actions.
- Counsel for PriceWaterhouseCoopers Canada in multidistrict litigation concerning federal securities fraud class action and alleged accounting and financial improprieties.
- Counsel for various companies in connection with competition-related lawsuits and/or antitrust compliance/counseling, in particular pharmaceutical and technology companies (e.g., Novo Nordisk, Biovail, T-Mobile)
- Counsel for multiple, successful petitioners seeking asylum based on political persecution.

In addition, Mr. McKenney has authored a number of publications on antitrust, class action, securities, and electronic discovery law, including "Antitrust Scrutiny of Pharmaceutical "Product Hopping," Antitrust Magazine (ABA Fall 2013), with M. Sean Royall and Ashley Johnson.

Education

J.D., summa cum laude, University of Houston Law Center, 2009
B.A. in History, with honors, Wesleyan University, 2004

Bar Admissions

Texas

United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas

United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas

Contact

jcm@brewerattorneys.com

214.653.4837