

B R E W E R

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Efrain Vera
Staff Professional

Efrain Vera is a staff professional in the New York office of Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors.

Mr. Vera received his Juris Doctor degree from Albany Law School in May 2018. While at Albany, Mr. Vera was a member of the Albany Law Review, where he served as Executive Editor for Miscarriages of Justice issue.

Mr. Vera worked with the law school's Community Development Clinic, where he helped guide non-profit organizations and small businesses in the Albany community through the initial start-up process.

Mr. Vera also interned with the Hon. Daniel J. Stewart, U.S. Magistrate Judge for the Northern District of New York.

Mr. Vera graduated from New York University in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in behavioral finance. He was a recipient of the Gates Millennium Scholarship and was a Gates Scholar throughout his time at NYU.

Mr. Vera was previously worked as a junior consultant at the firm and is actively involved in the firm's philanthropic activities. He has served as a judge in the Brewer Foundation/New York University International Public Policy Forum (IPPF) high school debate tournament. He is also a volunteer with the Brewer Foundation Future Leaders Program (FLP), from which he graduated.

Education

J.D., Albany Law School, 2018
B.S., Behavioral Finance, New York University, 2014

Bar Admissions

Mr. Vera's admission to the bar in New York is pending.

Contact

exv@brewerattorneys.com
212.224.8812