

B R E W E R

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Jordan P. Woody
Associate

Jordan P. Woody is an associate in Brewer, Attorneys & Counselors' Dallas office.

Ms. Woody received her Juris Doctor degree from New York University School of Law in 2012. At NYU, she served as a Senior Staff Editor of the Environmental Law Journal. Ms. Woody was also a John J. Creedon Scholar and the recipient of a Leonard M. Weintraub Scholar Award.

Ms. Woody received her Bachelor of Science in Political Science degree, with a minor in Psychology, magna cum laude, from Texas Christian University (TCU) in 2009.

Ms. Woody also graduated from TCU with both University Honors and Departmental Honors, and made the Dean's Honor List from the Fall 2006 through her graduation. Ms. Woody was also named a TCU Scholar, and received the TCU Visions Honor Award. She was a member of the Political Science Department Distinction Program, and the Pi Sigma Alpha Political Science Honors Society.

Since becoming a practicing attorney in 2013, Ms. Woody was listed in the "Top 40 Under 40" by The National Black Lawyers Association. She is also the recipient of the 2017 Tarrant County Bar's Pro-Bono Volunteer Attorney Award.

She is a member of the Eldon B. Mahon Inn of Court, and is a committee member on both the Tarrant County Volunteer Attorney Services Committee and the Texas Lawyers for Texas Veterans Committee.

Prior to joining the firm, Ms. Woody was an Assistant Criminal District Attorney in Dallas County, specializing in domestic violence cases. She also previously worked as an associate attorney at Shannon, Gracey, Ratliff & Miller, LLP.

Education

J.D., New York University School of Law, 2012

B.S., magna cum laude, in Political Science, Texas Christian University, 2009

Bar Admissions

Texas

Contact

jpw@brewerattorneys.com

214.653.4802